Article Submission Guidelines

Articles submitted for publication should be articles that have not been previously published and are submitted solely to The New Dentist™ magazine. All submissions should be no more than 750 words for short submissions or 1100 words for feature-length submissions. Articles published in The New Dentist™ magazine may be reproduced or reprinted only after written permission has been granted by The New Dentist™ magazine.

All solicited articles should be submitted electronically in Microsoft Word. Unsolicited articles may be considered for publication provided the article offers factual, useful information for The New Dentist™ readership. News items of interest to The New Dentist™ will be considered for publication. The editor reserves the right to reject or delete material that may be unsuitable for publication. The editor further reserves the right to edit all submissions for space, grammar and readability. The deadline for articles is determined by the managing editor.
